British Flyer Hops From Azores For America

Hot off the Griddle

By EMILE GAUVREAU

STRANGE MAN, ALEXANDER PEACOCK. As vice-president of the Carnegie Steel company he built up an estate of $15,000,000. Now he dies and leaves more to his secretary and to his valet than he does to his sons who get $100 apiece. His wife gets $5. His will says: "I make only this provision because I have liberally provided for her during my life time." Years ago he became angry because his butler brought him a cold storage egg, so he bought himself a $60,000 chicken ranch. Tight fisted with money, he amazed a crowd on an ocean liner by participating in a $500,000 card game. Pity the millionaire who doesn't know what to do with his money. There is no sadder spectacle in this life.

PHILIPS PHILIPS, GENTLEMAN and politician, who aspires to a seat in the House of Representatives from New York, finds himself opposed by Mrs. Ruth Pratt, a society lady who thinks politics is more interesting than bridge socials. Mr. Philips says he cannot attack her political record because Mrs. Pratt is a woman. He will ignore her as completely as possible. Mr. Philips' strategy may be shrewder than it is polite. He will not reply to (Continued on page eight)

MRS. HANNEY TRIAL TODAY

Mrs. Eleanor Hanney of Richmond, 33 year old mother of eight children, will go to trial before a Superior Court jury in Martinez today on a charge of maintaining a common nuisance in violation of the Wright Act, one of two complaints facing her.

The jury hearing will revolve about allegations that Mrs. Hanney sold liquor from her Richmond residence. Her husband, William Hanney, 44, pleaded guilty and was granted a year's probation.

Subsequently, Hanney and his wife were arrested again on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of four of their children, the parents being charged with permitting their children to witness liquor sales and of allowing their children to entertain patrons. Both have been held for Superior court trial on the later charge, but the date of their hearing has not been fixed. Hanney was freed on bail but his wife has been in jail since her arrest.

SPANISH ACE DELAYED BY BAD ENGINE

HORTA, Azores, Aug. 2. (Thursday) — (U.P.) — Captain Courtney and his companions were believed well on their way to North America tonight.

No reports had been received, but weather conditions were favorable and there was nothing to indicate disaster had overtaken them.

HORTA, Azores, Aug. 1. (U.P.) — With the round the world flight of Commander Ramon Franco close at his heels, the English aviator, Captain Frank Courtney took off for Newfoundland this afternoon. The British aviator has been here for some weeks following his flight from Lisbon, awaiting favorable weather to continue his flight to America.

Captain Courtney tried his plane Sunday afternoon and found it to be working perfectly. A large crowd gathered this afternoon to watch the takeoff and cheered as the plane disappeared in the distance.

PORT HUELVA, Spain, Aug. 1. (U.P.) — Commander Ramon Franco, noted Spanish aviator, who started his round the world flight from Cadiz, today, at seven fifteen a. m., made a forced landing at the town of La Ribida due to engine trouble.

Besides Franco, the plane carried Captain Ruiz de Alda, navigator, Emilio Gallarza, co-pilot, and Pablo Rada, mechanic.

Commander Franco declared he detected slight trouble in the motor and decided to return to La Ribida convent. The convent, where Columbus said his prayers before sailing for America in 1492.

He said as soon as repairs are made in the motor he would continue his world flight from La Ribida, the same spot from which he made his historic flight to South America in 1926.

Stege Club Will Plan Park Issue

The matter of Richmond taking over East Shore Park will be the principal topic of discussion at a meeting tonight at eight o'clock of the Stege Improvement club. The improvement program for the new fiscal year also will come up for consideration.

All interested in the activities of the organization are urged to attend.

A drive for new members is contemplated, according to President Angell.

San Pablo Man Named In Suit

MARTINEZ, Aug. 1. — Judgment of $145 plus damages of $100 are asked by Manuel Veloso in suit he instituted here today through Attorney Will Robenson against Carlo Carelmaro for alleged unlawful detention of service station equipment at the Flag Garage at San Pablo. Veloso says that following Carelmaro's purchase of the property he claimed ownership of the service station equipment, which Veloso contends is his property.

ON PENINSULA

Mrs. L. M. Fowler of the J. C. Penney company is enjoying her vacation in Palo Alto and Burlingame. She will be away for two weeks.

Gets Air Job

LADY HEATH, famous British woman flyer who flew the length of Africa, is now employed as a second pilot by the Royal Dutch Air Lines. She will inaugurate an air mail service between Amsterdam and Batavia, Dutch East Indies. She is first woman to be so hired.

PERMITS TAKE BIG INCREASE

Building permits for the month of July registered a severe drop over other months, total building representing only $36,350, as against $198,035 for July of 1927. July building was the second lowest building month of this year, the low mark being set in January, when permits totalled less than $25,000.

Of last month's expenditures, $5000 went for business building and approximately $19,000 for dwellings. Repairs and alterations totalled $10,500.

After a distinct lull of several weeks, building permits issued here took a sharp rise yesterday when permits issued by Building Inspector A. J. Hurley represented an estimated expenditure of $13,550.

The largest single item was for the construction of a residence to cost $5,800. It will be built by Contractors Anderson and Anderson for D. Erickson, in Gaynor avenue between Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth streets.

T. Hoshi received a permit for the erection of a cottage and garage to cost $5500 in Forty-seventh street between Wall and Santa Fe R. R. The contractors are Tandy and Theis.

Other permits granted yesterday were as follows: R. J. Meyer, erect garage at cost of $50 in Espee between Chanslor and Santa Fe R. R.; Mrs. G. Swegle, build sun porch on dwelling in Esmond avenue between Twenty-sixth and Twenty-eighth at cost of $200.

Richfield Will Issue New Stock

Authority has been given the Richfield Oil company to issue 400,000 shares of preferred stock with a par value of $25 a share and 5,000,000 shares of common at the same par value, according to dispatches from Dover, Delaware, where the L. S. Angeles company yesterday filed a charter with the state department.

The charter called for an increase in capital stock from $60,000,000 to $135,000,000.

HUGH CLARK III
Hugh Clark, 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Clark, Sr., of 135 Eighth street, is ill at the home of his parents.

BUILDERS LUNCHEON
Members of the Builders Exchange of Contra Costa county will meet in the exchange at luncheon today. A large attendance is expected.

REDUCTION OF $395 MONTHLY IS CITY EDICT

The first move in El Cerrito's effort to reduce expenditures as a means of bolstering weak finances of the city, came last night when slashes totalling approximately $395 a month were ordered.

The reductions were as follows:

1. The office of deputy tax collector was declared vacant, a saving of $150 a month. This office had been held by Forest Wright.

2. Three police department shifts, one paying $200 a month and the other two $180 each, were reduced to $120 each per month, a saving of $200.

3. An allowance of $25 a month for the municipal band was cancelled.

4. The firemen allowance of $20 a month was revoked.

The council was unanimously agreed on all issues except the matter of declaring vacant the office of deputy tax collector. Councilman Beck proposed this slash, which finally passed by a vote of 3 to 2, Councilmen Zimmerman and O'Brien opposing the cut.

Candidate Is Pleased With Drive Result

Louis E. Davis of El Cerrito, candidate for state senator, is covering a large area of territory in Contra Costa county. The vigor and good nature of Davis stand him greatly in hand. He meets the rigors of campaigning without apparent fatigue and keeps his temper unruffled.

After returning from Martinez this week he expressed himself as highly pleased at the outlook there and at Antioch.

It will be recalled by readers of the RECORD-HERALD, that four years ago, despite the fact that Davis' opponent had resided in Martinez for many years, his then opponent, Henry A. Johnston, of Richmond, "mixed it" with the present incumbent right in Sharkey's own bailiwick.

Davis' many friends at the county seat predict that he will poll a big vote there and at Antioch.

It is interesting to note that despite the claims to "popularity" made by Sharkey, he barely "got by" in 1924.

The vote at that time was for Johnston 6917; for Sharkey 6933. Sharkey's majority, out of a total of 3860 votes, being sixteen. And this against a man who had never been in politics.

To revert to conditions at the county seat; Davis expects to concentrate much fire in that sector. Davis has engagements booked ahead for two weeks, and has more demands upon his time than he can fill.

City Official Critically Ill

Reports from the Providence hospital in Oakland last night stated that the condition of City Councilman John I. Collins, stricken with paralysis last Sunday night, showed no appreciable change and that his condition is still regarded as serious. Dr. E. Gulman is the attending physician.

Seize Fortune In Gems Procured By Hoax

DEPUTY SHERIFF J. A. LAXMAN (left) and Sheriff Charles Scudero (right) seized from New York jeweler gems valued at quarter-million, claimed by Wamam. They had been obtained from latter on memorandum by housekeeper of Isaac Emerson, wife of millionaire patent medicine manufacturer, who says purchases were made by her.

LOCAL UTILITY TO SELL POWER

Possibility that power from the Eastbay Utility District's water system, which will supply Richmond and Eastbay cities, may be sold to Lodi is indicated in a letter to Mayor Spooner of Lodi from Arthur Davis, chief engineer of the local utility district.

A clash had appeared imminent between the two power projects, when it was learned that Lodi contemplated a dam near that of the local water district.

Davis' letter in part is as follows: "I have talked with the attorney for this district and find that he interprets the law to give us no authority for the sale of power outside the district except strictly surplus power."

"This term is rather indefinite and I believe susceptible of different interpretations by people with different views to support, and, under circumstances, it might be embarrassing to arrange for power which might not be and remain 'surplus power.'"

"If found necessary or desirable, I have no doubt that any reasonable modification of the law of both your city and our district desired such a change, could be secured. While this district must of course carefully guard its development, any project which you may contemplate or desire to consider, which does not interfere with our plant, would be viewed in a friendly spirit."

4 Blamed In Train Crash

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 1. (U.P.) — Four trainmen were held responsible by a board of inquiry for the wreck of the American Bar association special and the Cascade limited of the Southern Pacific in which 46 persons were injured.

The board conducted a two day inquiry at Cortena, where the accident occurred Sunday before its findings were announced here.

I. C. Lang, W. H. Sanders, conductor; and I. F. Taylor, flagman of the special, and P. W. Sutcliffe, fireman of the Cascade were blamed for the accident in which the locomotive of the Cascade plowed through 12 feet of the special's observation car.

The first three were accused of failure to protect their train when it stopped for repairs while the fireman of the Cascade was held responsible because he had a clear view ahead when the limited rounded a curve just before striking the special.

RETURN FROM NORTH

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Hiji of Mira Vista have returned from a motor trip to Washougal, Washington, where they visited with Hill's mother. Their two children, Ralph and Roberta, accompanied them.

MOTOR TO L. A.
Mrs. Minnie B. Jaquith and her daughter, Jewell, of Garvin avenue have motored to Los Angeles for their vacation.

TEN KILLED WHEN GIANT GATE FALLS

TORONTO, Ont., Aug. 1. (U.P.) — More than 100 workmen, happy in the knowledge that their work of setting a 500-ton steel gate in its place was about to be completed, were stunned with confusion and at least ten of them were killed today when the gate—which was about to be swung into its permanent position in the big Welland canal locks—slipped and fell into the canal bed.

In addition to the 10 known to have been killed, five are missing and scores were seriously injured. Rescue squads late today were digging into the canal bed in the belief that additional bodies would be found pinned under the giant gate.

One report, without confirmation, indicated more than a score of workers had been killed. Checking of the survivors was extremely difficult due to the fact (Continued on page eight)

Hoover Ends Fishing Trip

By PAUL R. MALLON
United Press Staff Correspondent
SHASTA SPRINGS, Aug. 1. (U.P.) — Herbert Hoover wound up his 1000 mile vacation here tonight and started back home physically fit but with his weight in wildcat.

In five days the republican presidential nominee has covered almost all of northern California and some of southern Oregon at such high speed that newspaper men trying to keep up with him have been worn to a frazzle. He has slept in the open. He has ridden 14 miles on horseback without ill effect. He has been up every morning with the sun to fish and tramp in high altitudes along the streams and trails of the mountains. He has traveled from 70 to 330 miles every day by motor. Most of the food he has eaten has been cold. He has slept about seven hours every night.

Now at the end of his high pressure tour he finds himself in perfect condition to begin the arduous duties of campaigning for the presidency.

Rites Held For Incubator Babe

Services were held from the Wilson and Kratzer chapel yesterday afternoon for Norma Jean Geska, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Geska of 3705 Ohio avenue. Cremation followed in the Berkeley crematory.

The infant, who caused considerable scientific interest during her brief life due to being prematurely born following an automobile accident last February, being reared for two months in an incubator, succumbed to pneumonia.

In addition to her parents, she is survived by three brothers and sisters, Evelyn, 7, Wallace 6, and Betty Jean, 2.

LEAVES FOR SPRINGS

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Curtis of 1500 Garvin avenue, will leave this morning for California Springs near Porterville, where Mrs. Curtis will take treatments.

BABY BOY ARRIVES

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Ledford of 583 Second street, are the parents of a son, born at the Richmond Maternity hospital. Both mother and son are doing nicely.

AT RUSSIAN RIVER

J. J. Barry, assistant chief of the Richmond fire department and members of his family are spending a vacation of two weeks at Russian river resorts.

D. A. R.'S FISCAL ACHIEVEMENT

The women of this country should feel very proud of the achievement of the Daughters of the American Revolution in conducting the finances of their organization with business-like efficiency. On July 1 a check was signed by the treasurer general for $1,000,000 wherewith to pay off the only outstanding indebtedness, incurred two years ago in a bond issue floated for the purpose of establishing a fund to enlarge the headquarters in Washington, D. C. With this liquidation the organization owes no money, owns free of incumbrance the property on which the new Constitution Hall will be built and has $700,000 in cash and pledges of $300,000 additional for the construction. Truly, a remarkable achievement, which justifies the warmest congratulations.

Numerous organizations of a social and patriotic character conduct their affairs with comparatively slight business efficiency. Inspired by high aims and striving to accomplish desirable results quickly, they are apt to load themselves with debt, the discharge of which calls for years of sacrificing endeavor, often hampering them in their work meanwhile. Many a worthy cause has been checked by failure to meet obligations in hours of high enthusiasm.

In the development of its national headquarters in Washington, the "Daughters" have proceeded conservatively and carefully. They created a large building fund before they undertook the construction of Continental Hall, and financed it through to completion without the straining of resources of the organization. When the time came to plan for an addition, to provide for the assemblages of the order in annual congress, which had outgrown the accommodations of the original meeting place, care was taken to avoid financial straits. A bond issue gave the money to buy the site and simultaneously provisions were made for a sinking fund and for the accumulation of a building fund. It may be doubted whether this record of liquidation in two years and the collection of enough cash and pledges to start the construction with assurance of a sufficiency to insure continuous work and early completion is to be matched in the records of voluntary organization activities in this country.—Washington Star.

Aviation is becoming so much a matter of course that it wouldn't surprise us much any day now to see a two-passenger airplane go by with seven or eight high school girls comfortably seated in it.—Ohio State Journal.

Julie Says—

Here are two different versions of the chiffon frock to show you how flexible is the mode, though practically the same material is used—a chiffon with a small pattern. And that is the way they are to be I hear both for now and the fall. I am afraid the large flowery pattern has figuratively gone to seed and is a thing of fashion's past. The black and white frock has its tiers banded with starched white chiffon. It is slightly longer in back and two white flowers are placed at the front of the wide swathed waistline. The other frock is a pink and turquoise flower design. The skirt is in several sections. The neck line is square with tiny bows of self material, placed on each shoulder.

BEAUTY
By LAURA LANE

You have had a tiring day at the office. Mr. Simpkins was in a sulky mood because he lost that big order from Whitman's and you, as his secretary, got the full benefit of his bad temper. Your nerves are rapped and frayed and you feel that twelve hours solid sleep will be necessary to erase the tired, cross wrinkles at your eyes and mouth.

And then your very best b. f. shows that he has tickets to the new game that is so popular. Can he call at eight?

Of course he can. But how to look fresh and sprightly when he arrives?
Don't rush home worrying about what dress you'll wear and how you'll ever get ready in time. Surprising around distractedly will only deepen those tiny lines and leave you more exhausted than before. Take your time bathing and dressing, and if you can snatch a few moments rest, so much the better. If you are a few minutes late, well, what are best b. f.'s for if not to have them wait occasionally?

When you get home, take a warm bath. As you lie there, soaking in the deliciously scented water, two or three drops of lavender or some of your favorite bath salts) you will feel the tiredness leave your relaxed muscles. Then, if you are the sort who reacts favorably to a cold shower, turn on the spray until your body is tingling and glowing.

Gently rub in your cleansing cream with the usual upward, outward motion. Wipe off and wash your face in warm water (and soap if your skin is not too dry). Follow this with an application of an ice-cold astringent. My preference is for a piece of ice, wrapped in gauze rubbed over the entire face and neck.

Your powder base next, and then your power and rouge and lipstick, if you use them. Brush your hair thoroughly to remove some of the dust you have accumulated during the day, arrange your coiffure, slip into your prettiest gown—and you can face b. f. with perfect confidence and composure.

The family of Carmen and Diego went to church. They prayed and sang. They saw many people. The women were all like Mother—dark-skinned, starched dresses, many beads, pretty painted fans, parasols. After church the people talked and laughed together. Diego thought to himself, "They chatter, chatter, like the bright parrots in the trees of the forest."

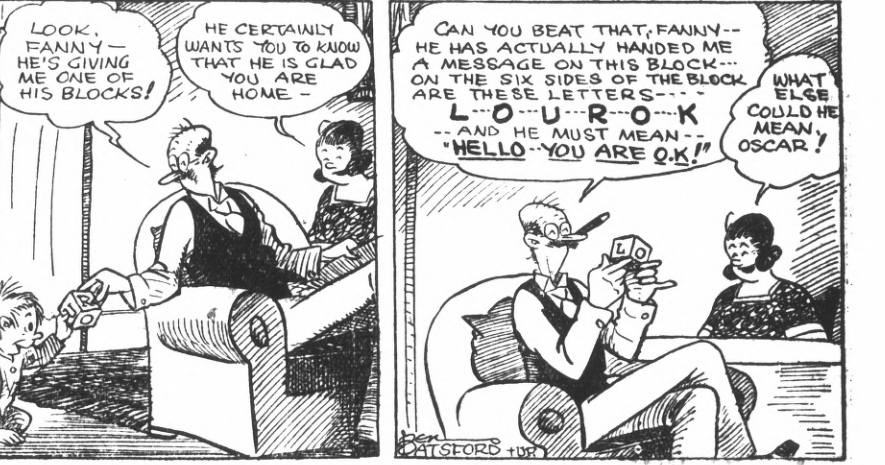

Home again! "The home—it is nice," Mother often said. It was a two-room and a kitchen 'dobe home. It had a flat tile roof. Diego had helped his father build this home. He had helped make the adobe bricks of the clay soil. He had helped to make the floors for the roof. Outside the house could be seen servant girls carrying laundry baskets as though they were headgear.

A Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer PICTURE

It Starts August 18th... Greater Movie Season!

FASHIONS ARE EFFECTED BY NEW MOVIES

Each new motion picture has a direct reaction upon women's fashions. Now it's the Chinese influence, and all because William Haines is starring in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Telling the World," which opens today at the California theatre.

Anita Paige, who plays the leading feminine role, has found many new fads among the native girls who play in the production.

The use of white by the Orientals of high caste is one item. Miss Paige has selected a modern white sport dress with the Chinese motif carried out. It is made of raw silk and is trimmed with an inch-wide standing collar which is embroidered in a Chinese pattern with gold thread. The same pattern appears on the skirt.

The five-claw dragon, which may be worn by mandarins and their families, is used to decorate a stunning evening wrap in Miss Paige's collection. The sacred symbol is spread across the back of the garment and no other trimming appears on the wrap.

High caste women do not wear trousers, except when they are covered by long skirts. Only the peasants wear trousers, but they are so picturesque that Miss Paige, for her boudoir, has selected Chinese palamas of raw silk in the bright colors—red, green and orange. These have the long fitted sleeves split up the sides, and the narrow, standing collar.

Sam Wood directed "Telling the World," which is a romance of the press association in which Haines rescues Miss Paige from the vengeance of a warlord in the interior of China. The cast includes Helen Percy, Bert Roach, Frank Currier, Polly Moran, Mathew Betz and many others.

Lloyd Hamilton in an exceedingly clever comedy, called "New Wrinkles," the latest International News and a Hodge Podge round out this unique bill.

PHOTOPLAY OF FRENCH LIFE INTRIGUING

Columbia is to be congratulated on delivering another sterling drama to screen lovers. This time it brings to the silver sheet a picture of Paris, minus all the hoedodge usually associated with the Latin Quarter and apache. In "A Woman's Way," which is the attraction at the Richmond Theatre, the audience is treated to a view of the Paris of today. It is a vivid, colorful portrayal of the French city as it is known to travelers and natives.

In presenting a true picture of the city, the dramatic and intriguing lure of Paris has been increased. The picturesque bath, quaint apartments, bizarre cafes and ornate porches are present as a background to this strange adventure of the Paris underworld.

The well balanced cast is headed by Warner Baxter, Margaret Livingston and Armando Kaliz. The action holds the interest through realism and sympathetic atmosphere. Edmund Mortimer, the director, has built up the picture so skillfully that when the climax arrives, it is doubly surprising and impressive.

The story deals with the awakening of love in the heart of a girl but is unobscured in his attempts. He regards her as his property and keeps all would-be suitors away. A dashing American youth, however, knows no fear of Jean and succeeds in making an impression on the girl. She returns his attention, although her fear of Jean makes her cautious in displaying it. Plot and intrigue follow, there are menacing shadows in notorious cafes and mortal combat in private rooms, which hold the attention and provide thrills.

The remainder of the program consists of a jocular comedy "Oh Mabel" and a different film entitled "Harem Scarem."

Beginning tomorrow Host Gibbons in "Painted Ponies" and the final episode of "King of the Jungle" are the feature attractions.

School nurse says all girls should know this

TALKING to a roomful of high school girls on personal hygiene, an experienced district nurse said: "One of the basic rules of health for girls is to keep the system functioning naturally at all times. Normal exercise and diet habits should be encouraged. But when necessary there's no harm in taking nujol, since it works mechanically. It won't cause distress or pain or griping."

Nujol is different from any other substance. It contains no drugs or medicine. It can be taken safely no matter how you are feeling because it is so pure and harmless. It works so easily. Every woman should keep a bottle on hand. Every druggist has this remarkable substance. Get the genuine.

Britain, Germany Have Most Representatives In Movies

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 1.—(U.P.)—With most European countries attempting a ban of some sort against American motion pictures it is interesting to note that Great Britain and Germany, two of the most active against Hollywood films, have the greatest number of representatives in the screen colony.

Charlie Chaplin, Ronald Colman, Herbert Brenon, Phillip Strange, Clive Brook, Ernest Torrence and Walter Byron are of the same 300 British born, who having found too little opportunity in native lands studios, achieved success, fame and fortune here.

Jannings, Lubitsch, Murnau, Vilma Banky, Lily Damita, Michael Curtiz and Alexander Korda are representative of the some 500 German-born and German trained players and executives in Hollywood.

Of this situation Samuel Goldwyn pioneer producer and importer of foreign talent, has definite views.

"It is silly for us to get down right national lines in the making of motion pictures," he says. "Motion pictures have achieved their enormous success solely and only because of their international appeal, the one expressive medium which has no boundaries of race or language."

"When Englishmen seek to bar American-made pictures they are barring the work of some of their best artists. For them to bar Hollywood productions is just as silly as if we were to bar the productions of the many American artists now working in England and Germany. It has no rhyme or reason."

All of the stars under contract to Goldwyn came from across the ocean. His string includes Ronald Colman and Walter Byron, of England, Vilma Banky, of Hungary, and Lily Damita of France. Miss Banky and Miss Damita received their screen training in Germany.

shows built around popular songs. This will mean that lyrics must be playwrights as well as poets. The lyrics will become more narrative. They will tell a complete story to provide the action that will combine the two arts. This is the age of action. We must act songs if they are to get across.

"Too Busy"

"I am presenting 'Too Busy' in an act explaining how I think the song was written. The set is a corner of a drug store with telephone booths, and a stream of disatisfied would-be telephonsers greeted with the operator's signal 'busy.' When one youth finally gets a number, his girl tells him she's too busy to talk, and he plaintively and wearily asks her, 'Are you honestly too busy, too?' just as a songwriter comes up to join the telephonsers. The song-writer, forgetting his own errand, sits down at the soda fountain and dashes off 'Too Busy.'"

"And this little act is not fiction, but based on an incident told me by the composers."

HUPMOBILE PRESENTS ITS 1929 CENTURY MODELS HERE

With the overwhelming demand for its Century Sixes and Eights still far from its peak point, the Hupp Motor Car Corporation announces that it is during the present week placing on view in the showrooms of its representatives throughout the country, its full line of new 1929 cars. New models can be seen today at the salesrooms of the local dealers, La Franz-Hilscher Motor Co., at 1429 Macdonald avenue.

Incorporated in the new models is an imposing list of refinements and improvements, which in the estimation of Hupmobile executives, gives assurance that their latest offering will be as much the sensation of the coming year as the 1928 Century proved to be. Changes which feature the new Hupmobile creations are numerous and far reaching. Especially in their appeal to the eye do they accentuate the attractiveness that brought to the Century cars on their presentation last year their instantaneous and unprecedented popularity.

The kinetic beauty of the earlier Century—outcome of a design which fashioned the entire car as a unit into a harmonious whole, whose every part balanced every other part—has been carried along in the new line to a unified charm that presents a new note in automobile ensembles. The effect thus gained is still further enhanced by the use of even more widely divergent and pleasing color schemes than before.

Together with added beauty of line and color in their latest offering, Hupmobile engineers have incorporated mechanical improvements which embody new advances in engineering achievement and which result in new standards of riding comfort and ease of control.

"We believe the Hupmobile to be the best car of its class in the world," said DuBois Young, president and general manager, in announcing the new models. "That the buying public ratified our opinion with enthusiasm has been abundantly proved by the unprecedented sales of our cars and by the influence the epoch-making Century design has exerted in the industry generally. In the past eight months many Century features have been widely adopted and it is significant to note that this season's new car announcements present the points on which the greatest stress are being laid are chromium plating, unified harmony design and other characteristics of our 1928 line."

"But with all this, Hupmobile has maintained its lead and Hupmobile values are still years ahead. We have taken full advantage of the knowledge gained during the past eight months to improve our Century models still further. Today we are even more gratified to state, as we did last October, our belief that 'Hupmobile is the best car of its class in the world.'"

The new line, of which representative examples are being displayed by La Franz-Hilscher Motor Co., at 1429 Macdonald avenue, comprises a complete array of body types in both Eight and Six cylinder models.

In the Eight group are included the four door sedan, two door sedan, four passenger coupe, two passenger cabriolet with rumble seat, five and seven passenger phaetons and two passenger sportster with rumble seat.

The six line presents the same body types and in addition offers selection of two passenger cabriolets both with and without rumble seats.

To those who see the new Hupmobiles for the first time, their most striking feature will undoubtedly be their heightened beauty. Analysis of the impression thus made shows that it arises from a combination of factors to which Hupmobile engineers have devoted special attention in carrying to a fuller realization their vision of unified harmony. Where ordinary practice in automobile building has paid attention to body lines only in the search for beauty, Hupmobile engineers have worked out a pleasing appearance of the chassis as well.

The cars' whole design is so handled that no mechanical parts protrude and from every angle the designer's conception of unbroken and complete harmony is transmitted with full effect to the eye of the beholder. This is especially noticeable in the handling of sheet metal. Last year sheet metal was extended so far in the Century design that even the gasoline tank, usually left exposed in motor cars, was completely hidden and at the front end the spring ends were similarly treated. In the new cars the hood sill and front splash guard under the radiator have been extended forward to cover the front spring shackles while the fuel tank cover has been extended also to cover the rear spring shackles. By the use of grooves, curves and contours, a highly refined appearance has been attained.

Attention to harmonized beauty is carried into numerous details. Bumpers are re-designed to secure a more graceful appearance as well as to give greater strength and resiliency. They are now oval on the outside face, with increased bar thickness. The shape of the extreme end has been improved by adding a curve, and stamped cars enhance the ornamental effect. The desire of Hupmobile designers has been to create a bumper that would be so integral a part of the car's general effect as to pass unnoticed unless looked for.

As in last year's car, bumpers are chromium plated and have a colored enamel design worked out. In the custom equipped cars they extend the entire width of the car, providing adequate protection which would otherwise be lost when spare tires are carried in the front fenders. Frame ends are designed with integral and substantial bumper seats—a practice which was one of the numerous touches of originality contributed in the Century design.

Attention to chassis details has been carried to many other parts in the new cars. Hubcaps on wood wheels are increased in size the front springs at their forward end. This has been still further increased this year by the addition of a shackle at the rear end of the front spring on the drivers side.

MAX BODENHEIM, New York radical poet and novelist, who was sought by police for questioning, was located at Provincetown, Mass., explained his flight from New York as an attempt to avoid unpleasantness following the death of Miss Drew. While in Provincetown, Gladys Loebe, 18, was intercepted by her father as she was on her way to visit Bodenheim, shown above at Provincetown.

In addition to the rear shackle, there is a coiled spring which allows the shackle to travel through a small arc according to the resistance set up by the spring. By this arrangement more of the road shocks are absorbed by the spring action and kept from reaching the steering wheel, thus reducing steering wheel "flight." This has been a European custom to some extent, but it is entirely new in the United States.

Another contribution to the riding ease of the new Hupmobiles is seen in the use of hydraulic shock absorbers of the latest type on both Six and Eight.

Various changes in the new Hupmobiles are designed to increase their driving ease and thus to please the large number of women who now prefer to sit at the wheel. One of them is a newly designed brake control with which very little pressure is needed to bring the car to a quick stop. The accelerator control has likewise been improved so that the car's speed is regulated in a smooth even manner rather than by jerks, as is often the case when the throttle is opened to irregularly by a nervous foot.

An increase in steering gear ratio further lessens the effort required in turning the wheels. A rearrangement of the tilt on the front wheels aids in preventing excessive wear on the sides of tires, thus tending to obviate a trouble of which much complaint has been heard since the introduction of balloon tires.

The new series cars are available in both standard and custom equipped styles. The custom equipped differs from the standard, in that it provides either six wood, wire or disc wheels, with two spares mounted in front fender wells, and also chromium plated cowl lights and cowl bands as well as a trunkrack at the rear.

Standard wheel equipment consists of wood wheels with extra rim mounted at the rear. These are available in either natural or painted wood wheels. The cars are also furnished with five wood, wire or disc wheels, the additional wheel being mounted at the rear instead of having two wheels at the sides. In this way the following classifications of wheel equipment are available: the standard car with five disc, wire or wood wheels, with extra wheel mounted at the rear, and the custom equipment with six wheels, of which two are mounted at the side. Hupmobile is one of the few cars offering natural finish wood wheels mounted in front fender wells.

Volcano Smoke With Temblors Arouses Natives

MANILA, Aug. 1.—(U.P.)—Continued smoking of the crater of Mayon Volcano in southern Luzon, "the most perfect cone in the world," coupled with recent earthquake shocks, have aroused considerable fear among may Filipinos.

Experts believe that Mayon is not apt to break forth but the destructive eruption of Taal Volcano near Manila no many years ago has not been forgotten and the recent quakes give point to the anxiety. Difficulty in communicating with remote districts delayed news of the damage wrought by the quake but direct word brought to Manila by travelers shows that the island of Mindoro suffered considerable harm by the tremors which rocked Manila.

At the town of Chaminawit it was discovered that vessels could no longer draw up to the wharf. Where before the quake large ships could be moored, today there is hardly enough water to float a small launch, due to rising of the sea bottom. The wharf itself curled up in a crescent shape, and was at one time thrown over side-wise although later righted itself by a subsequent shock.

Half of the town itself was submerged by subsidence of the land, while the other half was virtually unharmed in any way. Many nipa houses are now wholly under water.

Many people of the town tried to clamber aboard the first steamship which arrived and they sank a launch which put out.

SAN QUENTIN JAIL ESCAPE IS CAPTURED

SAN RAFAEL, Aug. 1.—(U.P.)—The fifth attempt to place Richard A. Palmer, 39, notorious thief in San Quentin and keep him there was started tonight.

M. J. Lyons, guard of the prison left here for Auburn, New York, with explicit instructions to get and bring the man who has twice escaped from San Quentin and twice escaped from trains while being brought to the state prison here.

Palmer first entered San Quentin in 1919 to serve a sentence of two years and a half for stealing $25,000 in jewelry from the St. Francis hotel in San Francisco.

Five months later he made his first escape from the prison and was apprehended in 1920 in New York. During his trip back here he jumped from a window of the train but was dazed by the fall and was found a few days later.

In 1922 he again made his way out of the prison here and was discovered a short time later in New York. During his second trip across the country under guard he made a leap from a train window at Rollins, Wyo., and disappeared from sight until he recently was found in prison in Auburn.

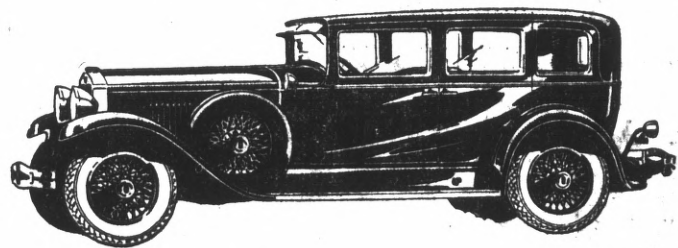

Palmer will be released from the New York jail on August 14, when Lyons will take him into custody. If Lyons reaches here with the prisoner, Palmer will be tried for escaping from the prison and conviction would mean a life sentence.

Thirty-six out of 600 students at Emory University, Georgia, replied "Yes" when asked if they preferred blondes.

LOW RATES MAKE ELECTRIC COOKING ECONOMICAL

1542 electric ranges just installed in our customers' homes

The Electric Range gives beauty, cleanliness and perfect baking to women who love modern methods.

That is the reason why 1542 of our customers installed Electric Ranges in their homes from May 1st to June 23rd.

The Electric Range has white porcelain enamel that makes kitchens attractive. It bakes perfectly. And it does it automatically. The oven heats up to 400 degrees in 9 to 11 minutes—as fast as one can mix biscuits. The open coil cooking elements are now made smaller to fit your pans. Heat that was formerly wasted goes to work. Food cooks faster—less electricity is used.

While you're downtown, stop in and see the new Electric Ranges.

Body hardware throughout is of distinctive type and individual Hupmobile pattern, in Italian Renaissance style. The motif is uniformly consistent in all fittings, even to the foot rest brackets.

Instrument panels are of entirely new design and in art work match body hardware, both in motif and finish. The Eight cylinder car panels being in oxidized bronze and those in the Six cylinder cars in oxidized silver. The new design has metal face plates with glass behind each of the small openings for instruments instead of the large single glass with etched face plates underneath. Indirect lighting of instruments is as before, but a two position switch also controls a concealed front-compartment lamp useful in looking on the floor. Heat control and choke control handles have been changed to comply with the new fashion of harmony.

Six cylinder models have two escutcheon plates on each door, one for the inside door handle and the other for the window regulator handle. In the eights, one large garnish plate is used, with separate openings for each handle. Dome lights are standard equipment in the cabriolet. Vanity cases and smoking sets are in wood with walnut grain color to match window moldings. Right front seats in two door sedans now fold under the cowl, instead of being of the tilting bucket type formerly in use.

In a mechanical way, Hupmobile engineers have once more evolved new devices which because of their efficiency and utility, may be expected to become the prevailing vogue of future motor car construction.

An example of these is seen in the front spring suspension of the eight. In the 1928 cars, Hupmobile engineers made a considerable advancement in standing the front end of the car by stiffening the frame and shackling

OAKLAND WINS 2ND STRAIGHT FROM SOLONS

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 1.—(U.P.)—Hollywood tightened its hold on first place of the Pacific Coast league by winning again today while the second place Solons were losing their second straight game of the week.

Sacramento was two full games behind the first place Stars and only one game ahead of the third place Seals.

The Stars broke a tie score by making one run in the last of the ninth to win, 8 to 7 from the Missions who did all their scoring in two innings.

Oakland scored four runs in the seventh inning and was able to defeat Sacramento 6 to 4.

One run scored in the eighth inning gave the San Francisco Seals the margin which enabled them to defeat Los Angeles, 6 to 1. The Seals had tied the score by making four runs in the seventh inning.

Seattle evened its series with Portland by accumulating seven runs in the last three innings to win, 7 to 5. Portland attempted a ninth inning rally but was retired after scoring two runs.

Lindbergh Is In St. Louis

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 1.—(U.P.)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh landed at the Fairfax airfield here late today, accompanied by Phil Love in Love's Ryan monoplane. Lindbergh would not state where he was going from here. He registered at a hotel and it was presumed he would spend the night here. He told the United Press he was inspecting local airports for the transcontinental air lines. He came from Wichita, Kan. Lindbergh's plane was left on the prairie near East Vanhook, N. M., where it is stranded with a disabled engine.

U. S. TEAM WINS 3 MORE FIRSTS

By FRANK GEITY
AMSTERDAM, August 1.—(U.P.)—Although American athletes won two more Olympic victories today, including a clean sweep in the pole vault and three out of six places in the discus throw, the United States now faces the prospect of not winning a single foot race of the 1928 games.

Not until Sid Atkinson, a second string man on the South African team, stepped away from Steve Anderson, University of Washington, and John Collier, of Brown University in the 110 meter high hurdles and back to back, Williams, 130 pound Vancouver, B. C. schoolboy, showed his flying heels to one of the greatest sprint fields ever gathered did the extent of the decline of American supremacy in the running events become apparent.

Williams became the first double winner of the Olympics when he crowded four days of strenuous sprinting with a thrilling victory in the 200 meters today, winning by a yard from Ranceley, lanky Englishman, in 21.8 seconds. For a slight youngster of only 19, his triumph in the 100 and 200 meter races after four days of successive competition in the trials, heats, and finals is the most impressive sprinting performance recorded since the days when R. C. Craig, Michigan star, ruled the under track world in 1906.

The Americans, who had been growing somewhat downcast over the succession of defeats handed their track stars, sent up a great roar in the damp Dutch dusk late today when the flames atop the stadium tower lighted the spectacle of three American faces side by side on the Olympic flagpole above the scoreboard at the completion of the pole vault.

Sid W. Carr, the sky-busting son of Yale, won first place by clearing the bar at 4.20 meters (13 feet 9.25 inches) for a new Olympic record.

William H. Broegemuller, of Northwestern University, was second with 4.10 meters (13 feet 5.25 inches). Charles F. McInnis, of Chicago, A. A. Lee Barnard, Los Angeles, A. C. and Packard of Canada all cleared 3.95 metres (12 feet 11.2 inches), but McGinnis won third place on the vault off Packard placed fourth and Barnes fifth. Nakawa of Japan won the vault off with Lindbergh, Sweden for sixth place.

Dr. Charles L. (Bud) Houser, Los Angeles, A. C. who is an old hand at this Olympic business, filled another cavity in the American athletic depression with as pretty a throw of the discus as ever was seen. On his third try in the elimination series, the stocky Californian gracefully tossed the flathead platter 17.32 metres (56 feet 9.8 inches) far beyond the regular white marking lines for a new Olympic record. The former record of 16.15 metres (52 feet, 9.16 inches) also was held by Houser, who made the throw at the 1924 Olympic games. Houser's victory in the discus throw was not hollow one as Rivi of Finland, a veritable man mountain, was throwing the plate with tremendous power, lacking only Houser's rhythm. Rivi was second with a throw of 47.23 metres (154 feet, 10.92 inches). Jimmy Corson, Olympic Club, California, took third place in the discus with a throw of 47.10 metres.

DAZZY VANCE IS MAINSTAY OF DODGERS

By HARRY FERGUSON
If you can't understand why the Brooklyn Dodgers are hovering so close to first division, consider their pitching staff. If it isn't the best in the National League it will do until a better one comes along.

Pitching has been carrying the Dodgers along in the face of some of the most weird fielding ever seen on a major league diamond. Harvey Hendrick, an outfielder, is playing third base, and Babe Herman, a first baseman, is playing in the outfield. Rube Bressler, sometimes pitcher and a first baseman, is holding down another outfield post. So the Dodgers rank sixth in the National League fielding averages with a mediocre percentage of 968.

Manager Wilbert Robinson made those shifts in the hope of developing a more potent attack. But Brooklyn's clubbing is nothing to get enthusiastic about.

That brings us to the pitchers. First, there is Dazzy Vance. So many have sung the sage of the dazzer that his fame is established wherever baseball is known. He is the sort of a pitcher around whom legends grow. Twenty years from now when baseball experts call the roll of the great pitchers of our generation they are likely to name three—Alexander, Johnson and Vance.

Since 1922 Vance has been pitching winning ball for Brooklyn. In 1924 he was voted the most valuable player in the National League after he had won 28 games and lost 6. The highest earned run average he has ever given was 3.89. That was in 1926. This year Vance has won only a few more than he lost, but his average would have been better if his mates had not staged sloppy fielding and hit weakly behind him.

Next to Vance comes Jess Petty, whose hair is streaked with gray, but whose arm is strong and cunning. Petty, temperamental and erratic, pushed himself into the big leagues by virtue of his peerless pitching for Indianapolis in the American Association. He has had his troubles with club discipline but has been a lot of help to the Robins.

On paper, Doug McWeeny seems to be the best man on the staff. So far this year he has registered at a 5.67 rate. The Robins seem to be in a bit of a predicament as they do for any other pitcher. The only reason Doug cannot be listed among the best pitchers of all times is that occasionally he allows his Irish temper to get away from him.

Richmond To Enter Eastbay Soccer League

Under the direction of City Recreational Director Seawright, plans are being laid here for the formation of a soccer team to be entered in the Eastbay Soccer league which was organized early this week in Oakland. According to announcement by Seawright, he is preparing an application in behalf of the local team.

Members of the soccer team which represented Richmond last year, and which enjoyed a fair measure of success despite lack of practice, will be drawn on for this year's team.

The heaver is not difficult to raise in captivity.

County Official Gets First Buck

John A. Miller, deputy income tax collector for Contra Costa county, claims the honor of bagging the first buck of the season by Richmond hunters. Miller got his buck in the Livermore hills early yesterday morning and returned with it yesterday afternoon. He reports many deer in that location. Arthur Lee accompanied him on the trip. Other hunters in the party and who remained in the hills seeking deer are Frank Miller, Arthur Roberts and Frank Wilson.

The first American newspaper columnist to attain literary recognition was Lafcadio Hearn, of New Orleans.

REDUCTION ON CROSSING TIME FOR ATLANTIC

NEW YORK, August 1.—(U.P.)—Emergency commercial flights across the Atlantic Ocean in time approximately the same as that consumed by Lindbergh, Byrd and the Brenson crew, is seen here as an actuality by the spring or summer of 1931.

The development of plans for combination steamship and airplane service across the Atlantic are well past the dreamer stage on both sides of the Atlantic. The plans are so developed in fact that conservative business men interested in the gigantic problem of transportation are willing to admit the likelihood of special cargoes of emergency freight or passengers being set down within 40 hours on the opposite coast.

Such flights, of course, would demand a special premium and be expensive, but the service would be rendered almost devoid of the hazard which is now connected by the thought of trans-Atlantic flying.

The possibility of such service entails no visionary scheme of building floating islands upon the high seas. The quite practical landing decks of high-speed liners which are to be launched in two and a half years, will make floating islands unnecessary. These liners, built after the general fashion of the navy plane carriers plan a four day dock-to-dock service between America and Europe to be cut further to two and a half days by shore-to-ship plane service at either end of the journey.

Tolstoy's Servant

The servant went to market to buy pears, of which his master was inordinately fond.

"Good fruit," said the master, "or a beating for you!"

There were delicious pears in the market, and the servant selected a dozen of the finest in appearance. But here entered a doubt: Were they equally good in flavor? Would they satisfy the palate as well as the eye? The more he considered the matter the more anxious he became. That beating if the fruit were not satisfactory!

Desperately he bit into one. It was good. But the others?

Recklessly he bit into a second. It also was good. But how could he be sure the merchant was not cheating on those that remained?

In a frenzy he snatched a bite from all in turn; and then in triumph brought the fruit to his master...

HOOVER-CURTIS DRIVE FUND IS FOUR MILLION

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—(U.P.)—The Republican National committee will need about $4,000,000 for the Hoover-Curtis campaign, National Chairman Work estimated today.

This is about one-third more than the $3,000,000 spent by the National committee in the 1924 Coedlidge campaign, and it figures out about 25 cent per vote for the Republican candidate. The total set for this campaign is approximately the same as for the Harding campaign in 1920.

Republican leaders do not regard this as an exorbitant sum considering they have an extremely active campaign to go through. Democrats have announced no limit on what they expect to spend. Chairman Work also announced creation of a colored voters division to conduct the Hoover-Curtis campaign among negroes throughout the country. Main headquarters will be set up in the Harb building here where the National committee offices are. Branches may be established in New York and Chicago. The large negro voting population in New York and in middle western states like Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Missouri, will be organized intensively.

John R. Hawkins of Washington D. C., who seconded Hoover's nomination at Kansas City, is chairman of negro activity.

The Republican campaign fund drive is about to begin. Some contributions have come in by mail and these will be reported to Congress in an official report within a day or two. The party treasurer, J. R. Nutt of Cleveland, was here today conferring with Chairman Work, Jeremiah Milbank, eastern treasurer, and other officials of the National committee of finances.

"Chairman Work, after studying the needs and requirements of the various bureaus of the Republican organization has concluded that the legitimate expenditures of the campaign will be about four million dollars," committee headquarters announced formally. "Nobody knows how much has been spent and how much will be spent that way this year. That large sum is so spent is generally recognized, but the money receipts and disbursements, however put up on the side by individuals and is not contributed to the National committee, but to individuals who are to undertake certain work. The money is thereby made effective in the campaign, but not having passed through the hands of a committee, it does not have to be accounted for under law.

The law places no limit on the amount that may be spent in a presidential campaign. It only requires that political organizations handling campaign funds, report.

A Trio of Warships

TEN KILLED WHEN GIANT GATE FALLS

The bodies recovered were so badly crushed they could not be identified. This made it virtually impossible to tell whether those known to be unaccounted for were dead or injured and being treated in private homes.

The accident occurred when the steel gate was being set in place. A boom projecting from a crane on the high level of the westerly side of the lock slipped just as the gate was being swung towards its permanent position. A second crane placed on the opposite side of the lock held, and the operator made heroic efforts to prevent the gate from falling.

With the slipping of the cables and grapples, the gate plunged to the canal bed, dragging with it the cranes and the operators. More than 100 men were at work in the depths below. They were caught beneath the gate as it fell.

Word of the disaster spread rapidly throughout the city and every available doctor and nurse was summoned to the scene.

ENGINEER DIES IN EXPLOSION AT PITTSBURG

PITTSBURG, Aug. 1.—Carl Boegel, 34, a stationary engineer, died at St. Mary's hospital, San Francisco, last night of injuries he sustained yesterday in a furnace explosion at the Pittsburgh plant of the Johns-Manville company.

Although no official statement of the nature of the accident was issued, it is understood that a retaining wall about a boiler was blown to pieces when gas between the top of the boiler and the brick work exploded.

Boegel was engaged in shooting steam into the flues preparatory to cleaning when the blast occurred. Boegel's skull was fractured when he was struck by flying brick.

The injured man was rushed to the San Francisco hospital by Nutman ambulance and died without regaining consciousness.

A widow, Mabel Boegel, and one child survive. They reside at Pittsburgh.

Hello-Girl Unites Girl And Brother
SIOUX CITY, Ia., Aug. 60 (U.P.)—Mrs. Charlotte Rittenhaus, chief telephone operator for a Sioux City newspaper, earned the everlasting gratitude of Howard Myers and his sister, Mrs. Viola Fiske.

Recently Myers came to Sioux City with a circus. "Sioux City," he reflected, "I used to have a sister living here."

Myers went to the newspaper office, where Mrs. Rittenhaus offered her assistance. Mrs. Fiske's name was in the city directory, but a call to the address revealed that she no longer lived there. She was listed as a waitress, so the telephone operator hit upon the idea of calling every restaurant in Sioux City if necessary. The 51st call brought results, and

DAMAGES IN FOREST FIRE ON INCREASE

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 1.—(U.P.)—Property damage was rapidly mounting tonight as seven forest and bush fires raged in Northern California.

Reports of Federal and State forestry officials indicated that their chief problems had shifted from interior valleys, where five fires have been destroying thousands of acres of brush and timber lands, to two big blazes in coast counties.

State forestry officers said a fire in Mendocino county had blackened more than 12,000 acres and another blaze in Sonoma county was spreading rapidly after devastating 6000 acres of brush and small timber.

Optimism prevailed that two fires in Plumas county which have destroyed many buildings in one little mountain town and threatened another would soon be brought under control and that reinforcements on the firelines in Monterey county would quell that blaze.

Fires in Antelope valley near the California Nevada line and on the Mount Hamilton range, south of here had apparently ceased to be a serious menace.

No casualties or serious injuries had been reported.

While scores of men were hurrying to Mendocino and Sonoma counties, it was estimated that nearly 1000 others were trying to stop the advances of the five interior fires.

The most disastrous blazes so far have been in Plumas and Monterey counties.

Several buildings and about 25 campers' cabins in Mohawk, Plumas county, have been burned and another fire in the same county has periled a lumber yard and two box factories in Paxton. Federal forest officials said the buildings at Paxton had not been damaged early tonight. More than 500 acres in the vicinity have been burned.

The Paxton blaze was still delaying the work of 150 fire fighters, however, but it seemed to be slowing up. The Indian valley railroad joints the Western Pacific at Paxton.

Flames in the Mohawk region had licked through 400 acres of forest, but 75 additional fire fighters reached here this afternoon and lowering winds brought hopes it would be controlled during the night.

The Feather river inn boys' camp, several miles from Mohawk, was believed to have been damaged when sparks jumped across the Feather river.

Myers met his sister for the first time in more than 15 years, when she had eloped and came to Iowa.

But the meeting was more than a reunion for Mrs. Fiske. For her it was a visit from the dead. Shortly after she had left her former home in Astoria, N. Y., her brother had joined a circus. Two years later he joined the famous French Foreign Legion and in time a message came to relatives that he had been killed in Egypt.

"That report was all wrong," Myers explained to his sister. "I was wounded, but not killed."

Myers said he was discharged from the Foreign Legion in 1922, returning to the United States a year later.

"I just never bothered to write to my relatives," he said blushing. Before he left Sioux City he promised he would communicate with other relatives in New York, and possibly pay them a visit.

He started more than thirty years ago with a penny arcade on borrowed money and never charged more for his shows than the average person could afford to pay. Ford sold his automobiles on the same plan and became the richest man in the world next to Rockefeller. Woolworth also knew the value of small prices. Fox was an immigrant boy like Poli. ### THE DISASTER OF THE ITALIA will make Mussolini good and sick of dirigibles. Gen. Italo Balbo, his undersecretary for air was never sold on airships. Noble, fired with an explorer's zeal, wanted to prove to Balbo that airships were more practical than airplanes. He flew the Italia over the pole and now finds himself involved in an international scandal. His fiasco means more airplanes and seaplanes for Italy. Mussolini will take care of that. He will spend no more time and money on dirigibles. In a few more years dirigibles will be visiting in big museums as relics of the early stages of the evolution of air travel, when aviation was in its infancy. The Italia's trip has almost made aviation appear to be in its second childhood.
